BREED THEATER.

"The Mad Miner," Stirring Western Moving Picture.

Another big success is assured for the Breed theater this week, if one is to judge from the applause of last evening, for the stirring moving pic-ture The Mad Miner has held the aulience spellbound from the very pic-lience spellbound from the very pic-mesque beginning, showing the pack ing of a mule train to go over the mountains and showing them on the eemingly impassable routes, the im-mense areas of sage bush and cacti, gether with a goodly amount of real eart interest story, all mingled to orduce one of the best pictures on the Grand Canal of Venice is beyond Coscription, being one of the most com-blete moving pictures of its, kind, showing "Casa Doro," the Rialto, the outlet of the canal, the palace of the Doges, the prisons and all the great oints of renown.

The Hinduy lagger and Jones The stricals, The Miser, and Pastimes in Colorado complete the long bill and with the very attractive musical portion the audiences this week will be guaranteed a treat.

RODERICK THEATER.

An entirely new line of pictures are being shown at the Roderick this week and they are by no means of no small consideration. Heading the list is the brand new picture entitled Remiworth a romance during the reign of Queen Elizabeth in England, being over 1,000 Elizabeth in England, being over 1,000 feet in length and an exceptionally clear film. Plenty of fun is furnished for those in quest of funny pictures in The Crazy Barber and The Troublesceme Skypiece. Other pictures include Crocodile Turns Thief and The Affair in the Select Hotel. Mr. O'Neil is singing a pretty little ballad, it's Only Me in My Nightle and Miss Jennie Hefferman, the local soprano, is singing the ran, the local soprano is singing the latest success, It Looks Like a Big Night Tonight. The Swine or the Flower?

Ah me! I am a huge and loathsome sty,
Wherein a drove of wallowing swine
were barred,
Whose banquet shocked the nostril and the eye; Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of lard!" I fied, and saw a field that seemed at first

One glistening mass of roses pure and white, With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage nursed;
And, as I lingered o'er the lovely sight,
The summer breeze, that cooled that Southern scene,
Whispered, "Behold the source of

"Dignity Is What We Use To Conceal Our Ignorance"

is Elbert Hubbard's definition of the ord dignity.
Unquestionably Elbert is correct, and every thinking person will agree with him.

Think of the people with dignity and count those having it naturally. He who has it naturally, combined with ability, is a great success in life. Those with assumed dignity are—well, they are understood and discounted by the public.

they are understood and discounted by the public.

We've no dignity, natural or as-sumed, and if its use was attempted by us the public would discount it. Let the public estimate us correctly; give us credit for a thorough knowl-edge of the photograph business; for doing work at reasonable prices. FROM THE LUMBER CAMPS

I shall have two more carloads of those Lumber Horses from the White Mountains, and unless I am very much mistaken, there will be a buyer here today for every horse. These Lumber Horses are a great snap for you and for me. I get them all. They are bought by the humbermen in the fall and are worked hard all winter, and when apring comes they must be sold! I have a contract with the lumbermen that insures my getting lifem every year. Such horses are safe and sure bargains. They are thin from very hard work, but give them juet a luttle show and see how quickly they will fill out. Having worked bard all winter, they are thoroughly seclimated and will start right in and work for and will start right in and work yau all summer. PRICE $25.00 $100.60.

Come today and bring your money with you-for you'll surely want to buy when you see the horses. My last lot went in one day: THREE CARLOADS OF OHIO, VER-MONT AND IOWA HORSES. We have heard, down here in Cactus, how they want some handsome As a 'nauguration escort when March Fourth arrives again;
And we want to say 'Quit lookin',' for there ain't, above the sod.
Any bunch of handsome hombreys that can touch our beauty squad.

CACTUS CENTER'S BEAUTY SQUARA

THREE COTTAGES to rent at Pleasant View Beach. Good bathing. Address E. F. Stillman, Westerly, R. I.

There's Poker Bill, who's slender and as languid as a girl—
Them hands can sling revolvers in the fancy double whirl—
And for beauty that's more rugged there's old Jim who drives the stage—
Plain alkali's his powder, and his favrite scent is sage.

Though we don't wear golden medals that was give at beauty shows. Though we don't sport patent leathers, and we're shy of evenin' clothes. Though there ain't no dudes in Cactus—leastways none that we can catch—

We can hold our own, we're thinkinin this beauty-seekin' match.

THE SHEEP MAN'S STORY.

"Move on," a zippin' bullet sings A-flyin' past my head; "Fil stay awhile. I answered back, In form of moulded lead.

I knowed the old sheep range was doomed—
I'd lingered there too late;
The homesteader must have his way—
'Tis in the book of fate.
